Meeting of the Israelites of Memphis --- Res olutions Denunciatory of the Harrible Butchery.

Last night Memphis Club Hall was filled at an early hour, upon a call being made that a mass meeting of the Israel-ites would be held, to take council and advice in relation to the fanatical massa-cre of Israelites in Roumania. The meet-ing was called to order, and A. E. Franking was called to order, and A. E. Frank-land called to the chair. The following gentlemen were elected vice presidents: A. Seessel, Benj. Elseman, L. Kremer, J. Happek, Lou. Leubrie, J. Schwab, L. Lehman, Sol. Hesse, E. Lowenstein and Martin Cohen. Charles Shloss and H. C.

Martin Cohen. Charles Shloss and H. C. Milcheil were appointed secretaries.

The Chair theu stated the object of the meeting, by reading the European telegrams from the columns of the APFKAL, and also the sympathy expressed by the good of all creeds through the editorial article in the same paper.

The Chair then appointed a committee of eleven on resolutions, to-wit: L. Kremer, A. Seessel, Jno. Rice, Max Friedman, J. Schwab, J. Happek, Martin Cohen, G. H. Judah, Adolph Loeb, Jo Reser, Sam Hesse.

Pending the absence of the committee, speeches were made by A. E. Frandland, H. M. Loewenstine, L. Lehman, Lew Leubrie, Colonel L. J. Dupre and Adolph The committee presented the following

Upon the resolution from the Council, instructing the Mayor and City Engineer to advertise for proposals for grading a certain portion of the wharf between Union and Beale streets, referred to me for investigation and report, I report that I should consider work done east of that portion which annually cracks and settles safe and servicesable; but would not also be a service of the safe and servicesable; but would not advise expenditures for anything like a permanent wharf on that portion or it which does so sink, until steps are taken to prevent it, and the same have been fully tested and found to be efficient. I have furnished an approximate estimate of the cost of the paving and grading in a pre-vious report.

MISSISSIPPI RIVER RAILROAD.

Card from Mr. W. B. Greenlaw Explaining Operations of Stockholders' Meeting.

Editors Appeal: On the 31st of May the stockholders of the Mississippi River Railroad met together to hold their annual election for Directors of said road. On motion I, as a tax-payer and stockholder, was formally elected Chairman of said meeting, and Isaac Morrison Secretary. Shelby County Court was represented by Messrs. Walker and Jones, Judge Hume F. Hill, the third member of the Shelby county committee, not present.

We were proceeding to hold the election when we were interrupted by an injunction forbidding the same. Like law abiding citizens, we immediately obeyed the mandate of the Court and stopped the election.
